SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 22.

FALLING IN LOVE. -It is not a new thing to love. There has been more or less love in the world for several thousand years, but the advancing civilization of the age has brought along with it many modern improvements, of which love gets its share. Probably a young man is just as nice a being to fall in love with now-and there isn't any doubt that a young woman is a great deal nicer-than was the case twenty or thirty centuries age, but a girl of this day, with all her sweetness, is perverse, and declines to fellow after the fashion of her great grandmothers away back in the ages. She may have a strange idea that girls then fell in love with a man by the most direct route, because there was nothing else to fall in love with, because girls then didn't wear frizzes, and have plumes and paper flowers in their hats and a hundred other things to fill their minds and hearts, which keep the girls of our time too busy for anything. But our girls must not be misunder stood. They are always thinking about a man. always, only don't fall in love with him if the developments of nearly every day go for anything. They are forever tri-fling with themselves and they go desperately and hopelessly in love, sometimes with one thing and sometimes with another, but not often with a man. Occasionally the tender passion is aroused by a button hole bouquet, the sweetest thing you ever saw; frequently it is a perfectly lovely moustache, black-it must always be black-that kills; sometimes a many colored occk tie or a seal ring, or a pair of elegant boots, or a diamond pip, or almost anything which would naturally be classed with these glittering attractions to swindle a young woman's affections. Of course there is always a man attached, and that may naturally be ac counted of some consequence, but it is too rarely considered until it's too late. The fact clearly is that love is too blind for moral use. He doesn't see as well now by gaslight as he used to years and years ago in the unsteady and hideous glare of the tallow candle, and there is no eye opener that seems to reach his base to serve as a check upon his headlong and too often disastrous career. A moustache is just the same over the front gate in the dark as in the brightness of an electric light if the girl is in love with it, and it isn't worth while for any but those who may be interested in the divorce business to bother much about it .-Phila, Times, a newspaper that has won its long life by "the survival of the fittest" amid hundreds of journals that have been its cotemporaries from tim to time during the four score years that its col-umns have shown "the age and body of the The Gazette sims to be a journal of high character—early in the receipt of news and prompting giving to its readers the latest advices, foreign and domestic.

1ts policy is to do justice without fear, favor

er affection; to give honest judgments of public measures and public finen; but to trench on the sacred privacy of no man's hearthstone.

It expects to render faithful service to the city

the state and the country by a candid criticism of men and events in the interest of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued with such additional facilities as past experience justifies the propriemants of the standard of the continued with such additional facilities as past experience justifies the propriemants. tor in believing will add to the capacity of the Gazette to serve its readers. The news of the National Capital will be carefully looked after. The year 1879 will see the control of both branches of Congress returned to the Democratic Conservative party, and this section of the country, so unjustly dealt with for many years, may look to see fairer measures inaugurated. Since the seat of the Federal gov ernment was established in Washington the Gezette has never been without a full representation in the corps of correspondents there, and especial pains will be taken this year that everything of interest, especially such matters as have a special reference to Virginia, shall be promptly and fully reported. The proceedings of the Legislative, Executive or Judicial Departments of the Government will find their earliest record in the columns of the Gazette.

Its Richmond correspondence will be unusually attractive—full in everything that concerns cur local interests, faithful in all things, trenchits and graphic

The record of events in the State of Virginia will be fully kept up, but to the intelligence of that section of the Commonwealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers, as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, the Gazette will be especially and assiduously devoted.

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazette will be filled with the earliest and most exact commercial news, edited with such painstaking care as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible.
